

Directly out of high school, Zeke began his career in EMS. He worked for seven years near his hometown of Seneca, South Carolina, initially as an EMT-B then upgraded to a Paramedic. In 2015, he moved to Charlotte and began working at Medic as a Paramedic. Zeke describes himself as observant, responsible and “a work in progress”. Those traits assist him in his current role as Human Resources Recruiter. He states the top three reasons he loves his current position are his ability to assist fellow co-workers with their needs, interacting with peers and his working relationships with the “BEST” co-workers. Zeke’s personal connection to the Agency’s mission of helping the community carries over during his personal time where he is actively involved with assisting teens and children in their time of need through programs like Time Out Youth, Trevor Project and The Relatives Youth Crisis Center. He has a great love for his family, friends, his dog and “food”. In his spare time, Zeke enjoys watching Clemson football, lazy days on the lake and running.

His motto is “Successful people do things when they don’t want to.” – Dr. Phil